

A.E.A. News – Ear Foundation Congress 26th of September 2016 - Brussels

On Monday the 26th of September 2016, more than 60 participants from 14 countries joined the Ear Foundation Congress in Brussels on “Adult Hearing Loss in Europe 2016 – Spend to save” in Brussels.

The Ear Foundation
Adult Hearing Loss in Europe 2016
Spend to Save

AEA presented “Return on Investment in Hearing Care” and the joint AEA-EFHOH-EHIMA report “Getting our Numbers Right” on Hearing Loss, Hearing Care and Hearing Aid use in Europe” was launched at this congress.

You can download the handout of the AEA presentation and the report at the news section of the AEA website: <http://www.aea-audio.org/portal/index.php/news>

The speakers at the Congress were: Shelly Chadha (World Health Organisation), Helene Amieva (University of Bordeaux, Fr), Sue Archbold (Ear Foundation, UK), Lidia Best (EFHOH – European Federation of Hard of Hearing People), Laurence Hartmann (Conservatoire national des arts et métiers, Paris), Peter Helmhout (End-user experience, NL), Soren Hougaard (EHIMA, Dk), Wendy Huinck (Radboud Nijmegen, NL), Brian Lamb (Ear Foundation), Mark Laureyns (AEA), Ciaran O’Neill (School of Business and Economics, Galway, Ir) Leo de Raeve (Onici, Be), Krishan Ramdoo (Northwick Park Hospital, London), Chris Wood (Action on Hearing Loss) and other.